

State Senator Richard Bray

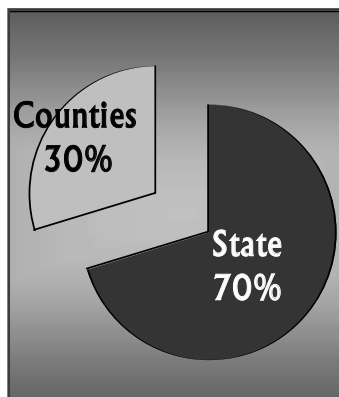

2004

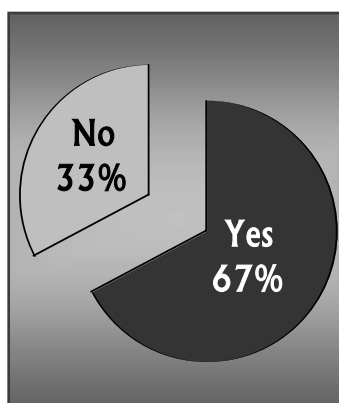

Legislative Survey Results

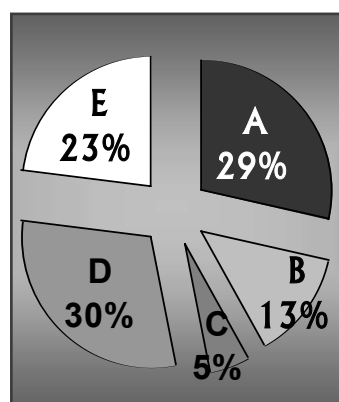

1. In an effort to enhance the grain markets, should the state continue to offer tax credits to encourage the construction of facilities that would produce grain-based fuels, such as ethanol?

2. Who should fund juvenile corrections – the state or counties?

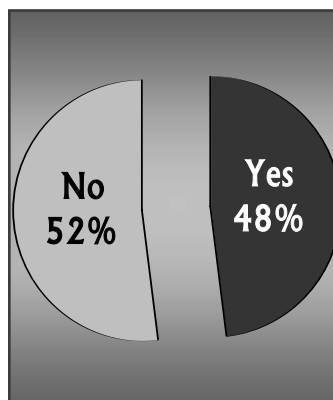

3. Should Indiana offer more generous financial incentives, such as tax abatement and TIF distribution for new businesses to locate and create jobs here?

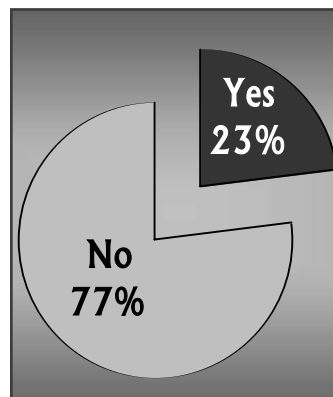

4. In your opinion, which is the MOST important factor in improving student learning?

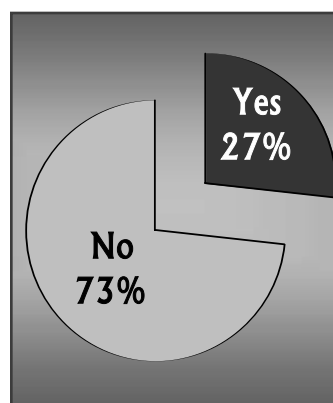

- a. Teacher quality
- b. Class size
- c. Funding
- d. Parental involvement
- e. School discipline

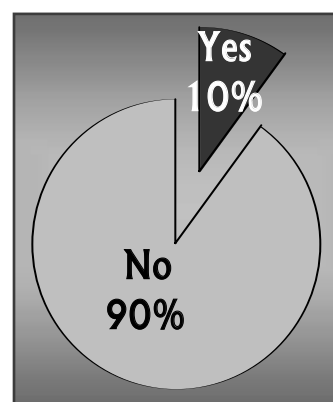

5. Should state education funding be tied to schools' achievement performance?

6. Should schools that have steadily declining enrollments continue to receive guaranteed annual increases in state funding?

7. Do you favor any further expansion of gambling in Indiana?

8. Should Indiana recognize civil unions between same-sex couples?